IV. Code of Conduct for Senior Management:

1. Introduction

Ethical Business conduct is critical to a business. Accordingly, officers of the Company are expected to read and understand this code, uphold the standards in day-to-day activities and comply with all applicable laws, rules and regulations as well as the policies and procedures adopted by the company that govern the Conduct of its employees. The matters covered in this code are of utmost importance to the company, its stakeholders and business partners. Further, these are essential so that we can conduct our business in accordance with our stated values. All officers of the Senior Management should send acknowledgement in writing to HR Department indicating that they have read and understood and agreed to comply with the code.

2. Honest and Ethical Conduct

All officers are expected to act in accordance with the highest standards of personal and professional integrity, honesty and ethical conduct, while working on the company's premises, at company sponsored business and social events, or at any other place where Officers represent the company.

Honest conduct is understood as such conduct that is ethical, free from fraud or deception and conforming to the accepted professional standards. Ethical conduct includes the ethical handling of actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships.

3. Conflicts of Interest

An officer's duty to the company demands that he or she avoids and discloses actual and apparent conflicts of interest. A conflict of interest exists where the interests or benefits of one person or entity conflict with the interests or benefits of the company. Examples include:

Employment/Outside employment: In consideration of employment with the Company, Officers are expected to devote their full attention to the business interest of the Company. Officers are prohibited from engaging in any activity that interferes with their performance or responsibilities to the Company, or is otherwise in conflict with or prejudicial to the Company. Our policies prohibit Officers from accepting simultaneous employment with suppliers, customers, developers or competitors of the Company, or from taking part in any activity that enhances or supports a competitor's position. Additionally, Officers must disclose to the Company's CMD/Audit Committee, any interest that they have that may conflict with the business of the Company.

Outside directorships and employment: It is a conflict of interest to serve as a Director / Employee in any other organization which is doing similar business in which our Company is engaged.

Related parties: As a general rule, Officers should avoid conducting Company business with a relative, or with a business in which a relative is associated in any significant role. Relatives include spouse, children, parents, grandparents, grandchildren, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, step relationships, and in-laws. The Company discourages the employment of relatives of Officers in positions or assignments within the same department. Further, the Company prohibits the employment of such individuals in positions that have a financial dependence or influence (e.g., an auditing or control relationship, or a supervisor / subordinate relationship).

Payments or gifts from others: Under no circumstances may Officers accept any offer, payment, promise to pay, or authorization to pay any money, gift, or anything of value from customers, vendors, consultants, etc., that is perceived as intended, directly or indirectly, to influence any business decision, any act or failure to act, any commitment of fraud, or opportunity for the commitment of any fraud. Inexpensive gifts, infrequent business meals, celebratory events and entertainment, provided that they are not excessive or create an appearance of impropriety, do not violate this policy.

Corporate opportunities: Officers may not exploit for their own personal gain the opportunities that are discovered through the use of corporate property, information or position, unless the opportunity is disclosed fully in writing to the Company.

Other situations: Because other conflicts of interest may arise, it would be impractical to attempt to list all possible situations. If a proposed transaction or situation raises any questions or doubts, Officers must consult the Head of HR / Finance.

4. Connection with Press / TV / Radio

The Chairman and Managing Director will appoint a Sr. Level Officer of the Company as 'Spokesman' who would interact with the media / radio / press. No other officer except with the permission of CMD will make any statement in press / media. No officer of the Company can criticize the Company in any article / in radio / TV broadcast etc.

5. Disclosure

Our policy is to provide full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure in reports and documents that are filed with, or submitted to any outside agency and in our other public communications. Accordingly, the Officers must ensure that they and others in the Company comply with company's disclosure controls and procedures, and our internal controls for financial reporting.

6. Compliance With Governmental Laws, Rules And Regulations / Internal Company Policies

Officers must comply with all applicable governmental laws, rules and regulations. Officers must acquire appropriate knowledge of the legal requirements relating to their duties sufficient to enable them to recognize potential dangers, and to know when to seek advice from the finance department. Officers must comply with the company's internal policies.

HR Department will arrange training for those employees who are discharging the functions relating to compliance with the rules / laws / technical know-how and Research & Development activities for their respective departments.

7. Violations of the Code

Part of an Officer's job and of his or her ethical responsibility is to help enforce this Code. Officers should be alert to possible violations and report this to the Head of HR / Finance Department. Officers must cooperate in any internal or external investigations of possible violations. Reprisal, threat, retribution or retaliation against any person who has, in good faith, reported a violation or a suspected violation of law, this Code or other Company policies, or against any person who is assisting in any investigation or process with respect to such a violation, is prohibited.

The Company will take appropriate action against any Officer whose actions are found to violate the Code or any other policy of the Company, after giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard. Where laws have been violated, the Company will cooperate fully with the appropriate authorities and regulators.

V. Waivers and Amendments of the Code

We are committed to continuously reviewing and updating our policies and procedures. Therefore, this Code is subject to modification. Any amendment/ inclusion or waiver of any provision of this Code must be approved by the Company's Board of Directors and promptly disclosed on the Company's website and in applicable regulatory filings pursuant to applicable laws and regulations, together with details about the nature of the amendment or waiver.

VI. Implementation of Code of Conduct:

The Compliance Officer shall forward a copy of the code to the existing “Directors”, “Senior Management Personnel” immediately on its approval by the Board and to the new “Directors” or “Senior Management Personnel” immediately on their appointment on the Board.

- a) All “Directors” and “Senior Management Personnel” shall acknowledge the receipt of this code and on intimation of any revision thereon.
- b) The “Directors” and “Senior Management Personnel” shall affirm compliance with this Code on an annual basis as required under SEBI LODR Regulations.
- c) The Compliance Officer shall report to the Board any breach of this code, which comes to his notice, for its information and to decide on the future course of action.

VII. Publication of the Code of Conduct:

The Code of Conduct as amended from time to time shall be published / posted on the website of the Company www.hariompipes.com.

As a Listed Public Limited Company, it is of critical importance that the Company's filings with the Registrar of Companies (ROC), Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI), and/or the concerned Stock Exchange(s) on which the securities of the Company are or maybe listed be full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable.

VIII. Amendments, Modification & Waivers:

This Code may be amended, modified, or varied by the Board, subject to appropriate applicable provisions of law, rules, regulations and guidelines. As a general policy, the Board will not grant waivers to this Code. However, in extraordinary situations and for reasons to be recorded in writing, the Board may waive or grant exemption from any one or more of the provisions of this Code.

IX. Acknowledgement of Receipt:

All Board Members and Senior Management Personnel shall acknowledge the receipt of the code, indicating that they have received, read and understood, and agreed to comply with the code and send the same to the Compliance Officer.
